THE YEAR 1940

The Christian year 1940 is a leap year of 366 days. July 4 will mark the beginning of the 165th year of American Independence; on October 31 423 years will have passed since Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of the Castle Church at Wittenberg, and January 19 is the 377th anniversary of the publication of the Heidelberg Catechism. According to Jewish reckoning sunset on Oct. 2 begins the 5701st year since the creation of the world. The 1359th year of the Mohammedan era begins with sunset on Feb. 9, and on January 1 the year 2600 of the Japanese era, being the 15th of the period of Showa, begins.

PEACE AMONG MEN OF GOOD WILL

A Message to Our Pastors and People

FROM THE PRESIDENT OF GENERAL SYNOD

When a little more than a year ago I bade farewell to the church which I had been privileged to serve for more than a quarter of a century, a people who had been always kind and generous presented me with a very beautiful radio. While truly grateful, the thought nevertheless came to me: This is a gift in my honor, but for the enjoyment of my family. In the busy year which followed, it was but rarely my privilege to tune in over the air. And now, instead of enjoying a vacation, as I had planned, I find myself obliged to spend the greater portion of my time in the living room of my home, which has also become my office. Enforced rest and time to turn the dials of my radio, while the world was preparing for a new major war; a war now become a reality.

As I listened to the voices coming to us in America from Paris, London, Berlin, Warsaw; as the text of diplomatic notes were read and interpreted, each actor in the horrible drama seeking to justify himself before the court of world opinion, there was but one hope, one prayer in my heart. It found its expression in one word, "Peace".

Then it was that I recalled anew and pondered with new earnestness these words of the first Christmas carol: "Peace, among men of good will."

There can be no hope of peace excepting among men of good will. To be sure, there are those who tell us that this song is not based on reality. It is but a poet's dream. And yet, though it were but a poet's dream, it is the dream, the hope around which we have built our lives, we who are followers of the Christ of Bethlehem's manger. Upon it has depended, and depends still, the whole movement in history which we call Christianity. It is the foundation upon which is reared the institution we call the Christian Church. It is more than a dream; it is a wondrous fact on which we build our life. The Church is dedicated to the purpose of building a new society, a new world, on the basis of lives which are overruled by good will; lives conquered by the power of the love of God in Christ. But over the air came voices which tell of the mobilization of armies: Force opposed to force. The leaders of nations preparing to fashion a new world, not by the power of good will, but by the power of the slaying sword.

During the year my work took me on many long journeys. The year was yet new when I was on my way to organize the first of the Synods established by the General Synod of 1938. I had planned to preach a sermon on the topic, "A Return to Sanity." In my hands was Eustace Percy's biography of John Knox. There, at the close of the most engaging chapter whose heading is, "The Dilemma of Christendom," I read these words: "We shall see, we are seeing even now, whether there is any escape from these dilemmas, save in a return to foolishness." A return to the foolishness of the Gospel, to the foolishness of love, to the foolishness of good will; that, paradoxically, is true sanity. At any rate, this is the cause to which the Church has dedicated herself, the cause of proclaiming to all men the Gospel of Christ with its promise of peace among men of good will. To this task we would consecrate ourselves as the Evangelical and Reformed Church in the midst of a warring world. Foolishness! Perhaps so. And yet to such foolishness men and women of faith have given their whole self, their lives; men and women of whom the world was not worthy, but through whom the lives of millions have been blessed.

When first we concerned ourselves with the writing of this article, we still hoped and prayed that the quarreling nations of Europe would refrain from that final mad act which has led their people into the horrors of a war too terrible to contemplate. Our hopes have come to naught. It is difficult to write. What shall we write, what can we do? As Christians we pledge ourselves that whatever our sentiments may be, we will be no less than what we profess to be, Christian. By the grace of God our lives shall not be overruled by hate. Our pulpits shall not be desecrated by a message which is out of tune with the Gospel of love. Whatever happens, we will not lose faith in the foolishness of the Gospel, the foolishness of that Gospel whose supreme symbol remains the cross, which speaks to us of wisdom and the power of God.

And this we can do. We can pray and work for this end, that our own nation may not permit itself to be drawn into this maelstrom of destruction, but that rather it seek the living God with the purpose of being ready as a people of good will to help heal the wounds of a bleeding world.

"Peace, among men of good will." As we repeat this we remember too the words which preceded this promise, this statement of fact. Peace, based upon good will, can be found only where men are prepared to give glory to God in the highest. That is where the crux of the matter lies. Men have refused in our day to give glory to God. That has been true of increasing numbers of individuals. It is true of nations and their governments. God helping us, it shall not remain true of us and our people.

But we can give glory to God only if he is very real to us, if His glory has been revealed not only in nature, but in the only way in which it can be known by man, the revelation of Himself within us through Christ Jesus, our Lord. It is this God whom we know and in whose love we glory, whom we would bring to a confused and troubled, a war torn world. Over the radio, just now, came the words from one of Europe's capitals: "Silent actors who are trying to understand." Trying to understand! Ah yes, a confused world trying to understand. And yet I believe there is no understanding of the meaning and purpose of life unless we go beyond all these things which lie on the surface. Beyond all things material, or political, or of purely national interest, all things which confuse and trouble us, to the one Supreme Reality, to the living eternal God. We, who profess to know Him, need now with new earnestness witness of Him.

That is what we need do. This is the service we can render. We need witness anew of the God who has revealed himself as the God of love. A devoted layman of the Church bids us sponsor an effort to increase the membership of our Churches by 5%. An earnest pastor, serving one of the leading and soundly established churches, writes of the need of the Church to witness and to make converts. Both challenge us and the Church at large to enter upon a new effort to evangelize the world and in doing this to begin at the home base. This means simply that all of us, you who read this, and I who write, devote ourselves with new earnestness to a convincing witness of the redeeming love of God in Christ, that men may believe, that the world may believe, and believing, be a world composed of men of good will among whom there is peace, the peace which only God can give.

Such, indeed, must be the purpose of our whole program. We ask that our congregations and individual members support the whole work of the Church. We formulate our programs, plan our activities, and organize our forces. Boards and Commissions, and auxiliary agencies of the Church, are busily engaged in carrying on that phase of the Church's work entrusted to their care. We can testify to their faithfulness. All this has as its one sole aim that as a Church we may witness of Christ to all men. I call upon the pulpit and the pew to be deeply in earnest about this supreme task of the Church in the coming year. It remains the one opportunity we have to make a real contribution to the life of the world.

This is not a time to lose faith in the day of God's Kingdom. Our trust remains in God. His promises we know to be sure and steadfast. We still have faith in the power of His word that it is able to transform self-willed, proud and cruel men into men of good will. In the foolishness of that faith we will go forward to our task in the coming year. Let us be very sure, however, that only they can say all this who walk with God. May our walk with God be closer than ever before.

The past year has been one in which the Evangelical and Reformed Church has continued to unify its work. Twenty-eight of a possible thirty-four of the new Synods have been organized. The Boards which have not as yet completely merged their activities, have endeavored to co-ordinate them more perfectly. Before the year comes to its close the womanhood of our Church will be banded together in one comprehensive organization to be known as the Woman's Guild. It is to foster all of the activities to which the women have so devotedly given themselves in the past and to accept new and wider opportunities of service. All this is only a further girding of itself, on the part of the Church, for its supreme mission, the witnessing unto Christ our Lord.

The year 1940 will bring us, in June, to a new General Synod. It is only incidental that from the time of its convening we will operate completely under the new Constitution. What we need to do and what we purpose to do above all, is to dedicate ourselves at this General Synod to the one supreme task of the Church. We long to witness with new earnestness and new power of that which we truly know and believe. Thus we would have part in creating a new world in which God rules and in which men are filled with His spirit of good will. Only in such service will the life of the Church be renewed. Only thus can each one of us find life.

President of General Synod.

NOTEWORTHY ANNIVERSARIES IN 1940

In its report to the General Synod at Columbus, the Executive Committee called attention to three important anniversaries which should be observed in 1940—the holding of the first service of the Reformed Church in North America, 215 years ago; the founding, 100 years ago, of the Kirchenverein des Westens, which later became the Evangelical Synod of North America, and the beginning of work among the Hungarians in this country, 50 years ago, by the Reformed Church in the United States. These historic events certainly call for recognition, and they give the entire Church abundant reason to celebrate and raise her voice in thanksgiving to God and the great Head of the Church, Jesus Christ, for His help and blessing.

In order that these anniversaries might be observed in a worthy way the General Council elected at Columbus appointed a Committee on Anniversary Celebrations, which is to make adequate preparations. This Committee, which consists of Dr. F. C. Klick, chairman; Rev. A. F. Alberswerth, secretary; Drs. Carl E. Schneider, W. H. Schlunkmann, Charles E. Schaeffer, R. W. Blemker, L. E. Bair, and Mrs. Elsa Reichenbach, met early in the present year and is working out certain plans which will be announced at the proper time. It will not be amiss, however, at this time to give something of the background for these three notable events, so as to inform our people as to the historical facts.

THE BEGINNINGS OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN NORTH AMERICA

The widespread devastation caused by the Thirty Years' War (1618-48) especially in Germany, was followed, only 40 years later, by the brutal attack of Louis XIV of France on the Palatinate, that section of Germany extending from Bingen on the Rhine to Strasbourg, with Heidelberg as its capital. During this attack 1,200 villages were burned, leaving many thousands of people utterly destitute. Their miserable lot was made even more wretched by religious persecution, as in 1685 a Catholic line of princes came into power and began to oppress them and take away their churches.

Driven to desperation, large numbers of Palatinates turned their eyes toward the New World, to seek civil and religious liberty, as well as better living conditions. William Penn gave these immigrants a hearty welcome, and in Pennsylvania they found not only a new home but also complete freedom to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience. They settled largely in what is now Bucks and Montgomery counties, from where they spread out toward the north, the west and the south. It was among these pioneers in a new world that John Philip Boehm, a schoolmaster, began to hold religious services in 1725.

THE "KIRCHENVEREIN DES WESTENS"

About 100 years after the coming of these Palatinates to America very similar conditions again arose in Germany, thus causing another mass immigration of Germans into the New World. For 20 years after Napoleon I came into power Europe was in a turmoil, and again Germany was the chief sufferer. The desperate struggle for freedom had completely exhausted the people; the devastation of war was followed by disease and hard times, and great multitudes of German farmers and laborers were attracted to the United States by the cheap land, political freedom and the bright prospects of material success. Most of them came to New York or Baltimore, and then found their way into western New York, northern Ohio, or to places along the Ohio River; others came via New Orleans, from where they made their way up the Mississippi to St. Louis, spreading out eastward into Illinois, or westward into Missouri. Most of the latter settled in St. Louis and the surrounding region, now known as St. Louis, St. Charles, Warren and Franklin counties.

In the spring of 1832 there came among the families which had settled along Femme Osage Creek, in Warren county, a young man named Hermann Garlichs, who, after completing his studies in Europe, had come to America to find land, freedom and opportunity. However, he soon discovered that farming meant much hard work, to which he was not accustomed, and he was preparing to return to Germany when he was persuaded to remain and serve the German Femme Osage community as its pastor. He went back to Germany for his ordination, and then returned to Missouri with his bride and ministered faithfully to these German farmers for nearly ten years.

The Basel Mission House sent out missionaries also to these spiritually neglected families in Illinois and Missouri, and it was one of these, the Rev. Louis E. Nollau, who invited a number of pioneer pastors to meet at his home, in Gravois Settlement, now Mehlville, on Oct. 15, 1840, to organize for closer fellowship and more effective service. Thus on that date there was founded the Kirchenverein des Westens, which in time became the Evangelical Synod of North America.

THE WORK AMONG HUNGARIANS

The largest body of people on the continent of Europe holding the Reformed faith is found in Hungary, a rich agricultural plain in Central Europe, watered by the "beautiful blue Danube."

Hungary became an independent Christian kingdom in 1000 A. D., and a constitutional monarchy in 1222. It remained independent until 1526, when the Magyars united their kingdom with Austria in order to gain protection from the onrushing hordes of Turks, who had been their most dangerous foes. The independent spirit of the Magyars could not however, tolerate the Hapsburgs, and they alternated in their struggles with Austria for political freedom, and with barbarians pressing upon them from the north and south. During the sixteenth century the Reformation made considerable headway in Hungary, but it was not until 1608 that Protestants finally won freedom of conscience and worship.

As a result of Austrian arrogance and the selfishness of the Magyar aristocracy, in 1848 there came the Hungarian revolution, in which Louis Kossuth came to the front as a leader in the struggle for a free and independent Hungary. When Kossuth later came to America as an exile, he was received with such kind hospitality that the people of Hungary have never forgotten it.

The increasing numbers of Hungarians who came to this country found employment in steel mills, mines and factories, chiefly in New England and the Pittsburgh and Cleveland areas. By the close of the eighties there were 100,000 of them, and in 1890 the Reformed Church in the United States brought the first Hungarian minister to this country, and aided in establishing a Hungarian church in Cleveland, and a few months later another in Pittsburgh.

All the above can be had through Eden Publishing House, 1712-24 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis; Heidelberg Press, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia, and Central Publishing House, 2969-75 West 25th St., Cleveland.

The observation of these anniversary occasions represents an excellent opportunity for promoting better mutual acquaintance between the two groups that joined hands in June, 1934, in Cleveland, and to strengthen the bond of union between them, so that it may become more and more in fact and in truth "a union of mind and heart."

NATIONAL MISSIONS

After the meeting of the General Synod at Lancaster, Pa., in June, 1940, the new Board of National Missions composed of twelve members will begin to function. Up to this time the Boards of the two "groups" were operating in their separate capacities, although in some instances actual mergers of mission stations have already taken place and cooperative work is carried forward jointly in a number of other places.

There are about 250 missions, with a membership of 25,000, receiving Home Mission aid. These missions represent various types of population and of service. The nationalities served comprise English, Germans from the Fatherland and Germans from the colonies in Russia, Indian, Hungarian, Czech and Japanese. Types of work pertain to definite projects in the Ozarks, among the fishermen at Biloxi, among tourists on Madeline Island, inner missions like in the Caroline Mission in St. Louis, educational work like in the Indian School at Neillsville, Wis., and in the Japanese Mission, San Francisco, and also the Harbor Mission work in New York and Baltimore, Md., besides the founding and fostering of mission congregations in a number of urban and rural communities.

In the Ozarks—Scene of Fruitful Preaching and Teaching at Bixby, Mo.

The proper housing of mission stations has always been a great problem. The Board of Home Missions of the Reformed Church built up a substantial Fund of $700,000 and the Board of Church Erection Fund of the Department of the Northwest has an additional sum of $250,000, making practically one million dollars in the Reformed group for Church building purposes. The Church Extension Fund Board of the Evangelical Synod has a sum approximating $500,000. Thus in the new Board of National Missions there is a revolving Fund for this purpose of one million and a half.

The operating expenses and the appropriations to the missionaries are supplied by the apportionment, which amounts to $480,000 a year. The Woman's Missionary Society and the Women's Union make substantial contributions to this work.

The work of Missionary Education is carried forward by a Cooperative Council in which the various Boards of the Church hold membership. The work of Promotion is conducted largely through the Committee on Correlation and Promotion under the auspices of the General Council. However, the Boards in their respective fields make suitable literature available to the Church at large. Here is a partial list which can be secured from headquarters:

The Outlook of Missions. Monthly periodical. Subscription $1.00 per year.

INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS

The foreign missionary enterprise of the Christian Church faces a world situation today which tests its faith. If ever this world needed the Gospel it is now. This is a day of opportunity for the Christian Church. It is to be doubted whether ever before in our history the Church has had such a challenging call to world service. The Foreign Missions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church are strategically placed for aid in the solution of these world-wide problems. This is no day to halt or quit in international Christian service.

In the midst of all these difficulties of this world-wide situation our missionaries are carrying on with unswerving devotion and loyalty. They deserve as never before the wholehearted support of the home Church.

INDIA

India continues to be one of the most fruitful missionary fields of the world. The census of 1941 will undoubtedly show a larger increase in the Christian population of India than any previous census.

The Church

Our Church showed an increase in membership during the past year of 156 and now numbers 3,990 communicants, 3,123 children, or a total of 7,113 souls. During the past year, our Church group, formerly designated as the India Mission District, merged with the United Church of Northern India, a Church body composed principally of Presbyterian and Congregational groups gathered by missionaries from America, Scotland, and England.

Educational Work

The educational work of the Mission in India continues to find much favor, and increases in enrollment and attendance have taken place in our schools. The total number of pupils being taught and trained in our primary, middle and high schools is 4,649. The Theological Seminary continues to supply the Church and the Mission with evangelists and pastors.

Medical Work

The Tilda Hospital has been extended by the addition of several rooms intended primarily for the treatment of women patients of whom there has been a large increase since the hospital was first founded. The leper hospital at Chandkuri, a joint enterprise of the Mission to Lepers, the government of India, and our own Mission, supplies treatment to lepers and carries on research work for the gradual elimination of leprosy.

Our own Mission supports a number of clinics where large numbers of lepers receive chaulmoogra injections.

Statistics

Missionaries serving the India field—34; evangelists—126; Biblewomen—25; teachers—186; patients treated in hospital—107, 443.

JAPAN

Christians in America should remember these days that if ever our Japanese Christian brethren needed our sympathy and help and support and love and prayers, it is now.

Our Mission in Japan is associated with the Church of Christ in Japan, a union Church composed of all the Presbyterian and Reformed folk in Japan, with a membership of 52,993.

Associated with our Mission in Japan is a Japanese staff of 264. Self-supporting churches, 23; organized churches, 55; preaching places, 19; communicants, 7,349. Sunday-schools, 86; Sunday School pupils, 4,704.

North Japan College, composed of academy and college, and located in the city of Sendai, is the largest educational institution of the Church, with its faculty of 100 and a student body of 1,335. Over 3,000 graduates are found in varied walks of life all over the world, many of them in places of influence.

Miyagi College, also located in the city of Sendai, is our educational institution for young women. It has a faculty of 50 and a student body of approximately 400. It is composed of high school and college. Its work is divided into four departments: Bible, English, Music and Home Economics.

Theological training is carried on in the Japan Theological Seminary, a union institution of the Church of Christ in Japan, in Tokyo, with 127 students.

CHINA

The China Mission of the Evangelical and Reformed Church is now in the midst of the bitter and devastating warfare being waged between Japan and China.

The area of hostilities has finally reached the interior province of Hunan, where our work is located, so that at the present writing one of our two main stations, Yoyang, formerly Yochow, is now in the territory dominated by the Japanese, and our mission property, after sustaining serious damage by bombing, is occupied by the Japanese army. Our other main station, Yuanling, formerly Shenchow, three hundred miles to the west, is still in free China, but is in constant danger of air-raids and is completely over-run with fleeing civilian population.

Our Mission is associated with the Church of Christ in China, a union Church of some nineteen Christian agencies with 128,496 members. Our evangelistic missionaries in Yuanling, report: "During recent months there has been especially good attendance at all services due to the influx of great numbers of Christians from other points. People are here from all parts of China. More copies of the Scriptures were sold in China last year than ever before."

Associated with our China Mission is a Chinese staff of 175. Organized churches, 7; preaching places, 42; communicants, 983. Sunday Schools, 34; Sunday School pupils, 1,703.

In Yoyang we have Huping Agricultural Normal Training School, a high school of 161 boys; and Zierner Memorial Girls' School, with 306 students. These schools were forced to flee to Yuanling last year, the boys on foot and the girls in boats.

Associated with Huping and Zierner are 24 primary schools with 996 pupils. In Yuanling we have two junior high schools: Eastview for boys, with 407 students, and Chenteh for girls, with 465 students.

In Changsha we are associated with two union senior high schools: Yali for boys, with 400 students, and Fuh Siang for girls, with 420 students. Central China College is the union institution in which our collegiate education is carried on. Bombed out twice, the college has moved to the town of Hsichow in the extreme southwestern province of Yunnan. Our theological education is in association with Central China Union Theological Seminary at Lingling.

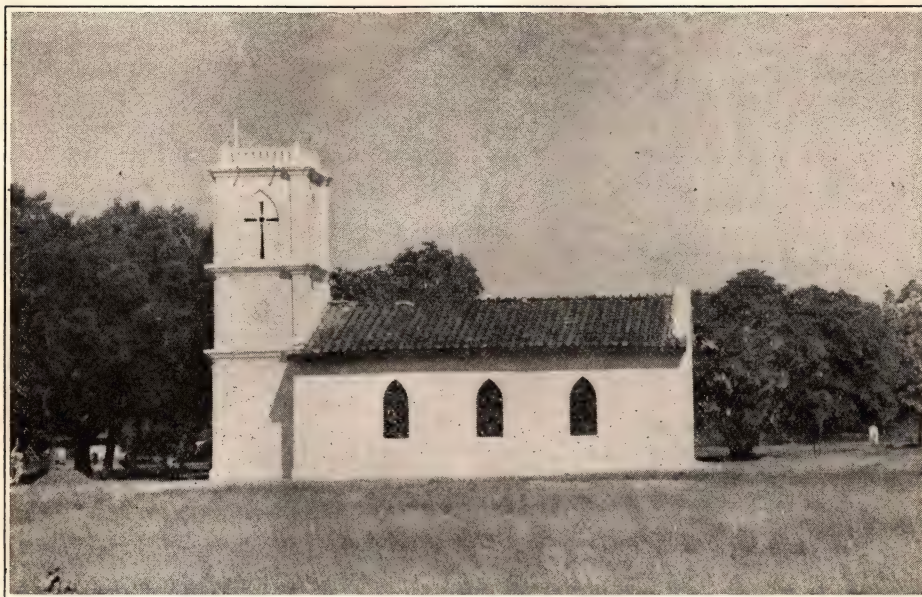

Hoy Memorial Hospital is located at Yoyang. The city fell to the Japanese army November 12th, 1938. All the hospital supplies and equipment were loaded on boats and sent up river to Yuanling, and thus were saved.

Abounding Grace Hospital is located at Yuanling and is combined with what has been salvaged from Hoy Memorial Hospital. Yuanling is in free China and has not yet been bombed, so Abounding Grace Hospital is carrying on its much-needed work of mercy. Its 100 beds are filled to the limit and emergency wards are set up everywhere.

The war has sent millions of people to the western sections of China for safety. Most of these millions are destitute, needy and ill. Their suffering constitutes "the major human catastrophe of history." Our whole missionary force is doing everything possible for these refugees. It is an unprecedented opportunity for revealing the Gospel of Jesus in action.

HONDURAS

The Church in Honduras grows slowly but steadily. A new congregation was formed in La Lima and the other four organized churches show an increase in their membership. The number reached with the Gospel has been exceedingly large and a fine interest is being manifested which should lead to large accessions to the Church in the coming years.

Educational Work

The educational work of the Mission in Honduras has been extended and now includes a normal department, and thereby a long felt need has been met. This makes necessary further equipment and the Board is seeking ways and means of supplying this equipment within the not-too-distant future.

Iraq is an overwhelmingly and fanatically Moslem country. The most difficult missionary task of the Church is the preaching of the Gospel to the Moslem world. This is augmented by the present unsettled condition of the Arabic Moslem countries of the Near East. Iraq is no exception.

Kirkuk is the center of the rich oil fields of Iraq. Here our missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Glessner, live and work. With his "Bible Wagon" automobile Mr. Glessner visits the villages and tribes of the surrounding desert.

The American School for Girls is located in Baghdad where 108 Moslem, Jewish and Christian girls are receiving a Christian education.

AFRICA

Work in Africa has not yet been begun because new objectives are being considered. The Board of International Missions plans to send an investigating committee to the field during the winter of '39-'40 to study conditions and to bring back a workable and satisfactory plan for future operation. The Africa Committee is a very active committee of the Board of International Missions, and its work is creating interest in many quarters. From present indications it would seem that when the time comes the necessary volunteers to serve as missionaries to the Africa field will be available.

Only as the Church carries out the command of the Master "Go ye into all the world and make disciples of all the nations" can it also lay hold of His promise "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." Through the merger of the two branches of our Church the possibility of more nearly approximating in our outreach the ideals of our Master and Lord have increased, and there should flow into the life of our Church much enrichment of faith and love from the richer consecration to His purposes.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IN OUR CHURCH

The Evangelical and Reformed Church is committed unqualifiedly to the task of developing Christian persons and building a Christian world. In the Christian religion we believe there are given to us the ideal patterns of personality development and of cooperative living. To plot those patterns clearly and to make them real and effective in persons and also in society is the task of Christian education.

Our new Church has a rich educational tradition. In the earlier days many congregations maintained parochial schools in which the teaching of religion was the primary concern. These parochial schools have since given way to the public schools, but the Church has not surrendered to the State its responsibility for the religious education of its boys and girls and men and women. Today over 550,000 pupils are enrolled in the Sunday schools of the denomination. Each year approximately 20,000 young adolescents attend confirmation instruction and prepare to take their places as active members of the Church. In thirteen colleges and seminaries young men and women are receiving a higher education under Church auspices and in a Christian environment. 100,000 young people and adults are members of special organizations within the Church which are primarily educational in purpose. These facts in themselves reveal something of the extent to which Christian education has been developed in our united Church.

THE TASK

Responsibility for promoting and directing a comprehensive and unified program of Christian education has been assigned to the Board of Christian Education and Publication. The Board's task is threefold—

1. Education—The By-laws of our Church charge this Board with the following duties: "It shall be the duty of the Board of Christian Education and Publication to develop, promote and direct a comprehensive and unified program of Christian Education in the denomination, to the end that the tenets of the Christian religion may become the controlling principle of life. This program shall adequately provide for all the people of all the churches—children, youth and adults. It shall embrace all areas and phases of Christian life, development and service and it shall be cast not primarily with reference to existing institutions or agencies but rather with reference to the needs of persons—their understandings, their attitude, their ideals, their convictions, their relationships to God and to society.

"It shall be the further responsibility of this Board to develop and direct an educational and editorial policy; to edit and publish such religious educational texts, church school hymnals, periodicals and other materials as may serve the best educational interests of the denomination, assuming sole responsibility, financial and otherwise, for such publications; to establish and direct a program of leadership training; to cooperate with other Boards and agencies of the church in the educational work under their care; to act as an educational service bureau and clearing house for all educational problems of the church and church school; and to assume such other duties as may properly fall within its province.

2. Real Estate—During this interim period, prior to the establishment of the new Board of Business Management, the Board of Christian Education and Publication is also responsible for the maintenance and operation of the thirteen-story Schaff Buildings which it owns. This building located at 1505 Race Street, Philadelphia, constitutes one of the Church's headquarters and represents over 100,000 square feet of rentable office space.

3. Business—The Board of Christian Education and Publication is also responsible for the operation of a Church and Church School supply business known as Heidelberg Press. This business is similar to that carried on by Eden Publishing House in St. Louis and Central Publishing House in Cleveland.

EDUCATION—THE BOARD'S PRIMARY TASK

Although the Real Estate and Business Phases of the Board's work are full-sized tasks in themselves and demand a tremendous amount of time, yet it is the Educational work which constitutes the Board's primary responsibility. Its efforts to fulfill this task have the following objectives:

a) to bring the Church to an ever growing appreciation and understanding of its educational task;

b) to make more vitally dynamic the local Church's program of Christian education;

c) to encourage the extension and expansion of the local Church's educational program;

d) to coordinate and unify the various agen-

To effectively meet these objectives the Board employs a skilled staff which functions through certain specialized departments. A brief outline of these departments, the service which each offers and the directors in charge are as follows:

This department concerns itself with the whole educational task. Services which are not specialized or for which there is no named director are cooperatively offered by the Staff working as a unit.

THE CHURCH'S SUPPORT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Receipts from our Churches for the work of Christian Education have in the past few years averaged about six cents per member per year. To adequately meet the growing educational needs of our new Church the per capita gift for Christian Education should be double this amount. You will be helping to build Christian personality and a more Christian world by liberally supporting your Church's program of Christian Education. The Board of Christian Education and Publication stands ever ready to serve you and your church to the limit of its resources and ability.

A. R. Keppel, Executive Secretary.

MINISTERIAL PENSIONS AND RELIEF

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF—"R" GROUP

The care of our ministers, whether they are in the active service of our Church, or whether they are aged or disabled, is the first duty of our Church. Therefore Ministerial Relief was the first benevolence of our Church. It has continued with increasing progress since 1752.

There are aged and disabled ministers

Rev. Eugene L. McLean, D.D.
Secretary of the "R" Board since 1938

and widows of ministers in nearly every Classis of our Church. During 1938 the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Reformed Church gave $90,257.89 to 532 ministers, widows of ministers, and minor orphan children of ministers. It is gratifying to know that from the organization of your "R" Board in 1905 to July 1, 1939, your Board paid $1,260,594.65 to 1015 Relief annuitants and Sustentation beneficiaries. At present your Board is paying at the rate of $255 a day to our annuitants.

All of us know the meaning of Relief. It is the giving of help to those who really need it. The Relief Department of your "R" Board is supported mainly by our Apportionment giving. Unfortunately our four Boards during 1938 received only 47¼% of the Apportionment voted them by the General Synod. In 1938 your Board of Min-

Ministerial Relief received $37,186.44 on its Apportionment of $80,821.08. To these $37,186.44 your Board added $11,136.78 and gave $48,323.22 in Relief grants to 89 ministers and 173 widows of ministers. But even then the Ministerial Relief support of our veteran ministers and their widows was inadequate. Your Board always gives every cent it receives from the Apportionment and about $10,000 more, each year, to our Ministerial Relief annuitants. Everything you give for Ministerial Relief is paid to our veteran ministers and their widows.

Our Sustentation Fund is a ministers' pension fund. At the close of 1938 there were 664 active paying members of the Fund and 270 beneficiaries. The dues of the Fund guarantee 20% of the maximum benefits. Our Church people are expected to pay enough in order that the members of the Sustentation Fund may receive the remaining 80% of the maximum benefits. But our Church people have provided enough money only to pay 30% of the maximum benefits. Therefore our Sustentation Fund annuitants can be paid only 50% (20% plus 30%) regularly of their maximum benefits by your Board at the present time; that is, our ministers, at the age of seventy, receive $250 a year, instead of $500, and their widows receive $150 a year, instead of $300. We, therefore, urge each congregation to raise something every year for our Sustentation Fund. Surely God will richly bless every one who gives to our worthy and urgently necessary cause; as He has done in the past. Our aged and infirm brethren who have borne the heat and burden of the day have a real claim on our assistance.

The finances of your Board are in a healthy condition. Your Board has no debts. The administration expenses in 1938 were the least for the last thirteen years. On December 31, 1938, your Board had 87 Annuity Bonds, which are good safe investments. Your Board also had 71 Memorial Funds. Your Board has had a very successful history of 34 years. In 1940, after the meeting of the General Synod, your Board will unite with the "E" Board of Pension and Relief to form the new Board of Pensions and Relief of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This new Board will establish a new and better Pension Fund for our ministers.

BOARD OF PENSION AND RELIEF—"E" GROUP

Rev. A. Dreusicke, Secretary of the "E" Board

The ever-increasing responsibility of the work of the Board of Pension and Relief of the "E" Group of our Church comes into definite significance when we note that concluding with the year 1938, this Board has paid out the sum of $2,016,852.38 in pensions and relief since its inception in the year 1910. A great portion of this money has come directly through the channels of the Church budget, although the premiums of the over eight hundred active members, together with the interest from an endowment fund of $925,000.00, have helped materially to meet our payments.

In the year 1938 we had on our pension list 156 pastors, 275 widows and 15 children. These folks are for the most part entirely dependent upon the support given them by this Board. We are the arm of the Church reaching out to those who no longer are actively engaged in the ministry, but who have done their share in the building of the Kingdom and to whom rightly belong the blessedness of the evening of life without worry or care. How can we go forth to preach the Gospel of love to the world unless we ourselves show actual love and care for those of our own household of faith? Many of them will never be able to have but a small share of the compensation due them for the service they have rendered, yet through the Pension and Relief Fund our beloved Church is attempting in a small measure to show its gratitude and appreciation.

We are one of the few American Churches which can humbly boast of a special institution known as the Pastors' Homes. We have two of them, one at Bensenville, Illinois, and the other at Blue Springs, Missouri. Ideal locations, just outside of the two large cities of Chicago and Kansas City, where we have a total of seventeen cottages in which retired pastors or pastors' widows live. This year another memorial cottage is being erected at Blue Springs, the gift of an anonymous Evangelical member. Who will be the next one to give us the money to put up such a worthy memorial, a remembrance of service and a home for one who has become tired and desires to rest until the evening comes? The cost is comparatively low and this Board stands ready to give the necessary information.

Please do not forget us in your consideration of gifts and bequests. Our endowment fund is very close to the million mark, a few special bequests would easily bring it to that grand total. We know of no more worthy cause to which you might leave a portion of your estate than in the service of those, who have served you.

The day of greater things in our pension field is rapidly dawning; in conjunction with the "R" Board of Ministerial Relief, this Board is making its plans to be ready to avail itself of the opportunity as soon as the necessary legislation is accomplished by General Synod. It should spell even greater things for our Church, its pastors and its laity.

EVANGELICAL WOMEN'S UNION

During 1939 our women have set their faces toward the Merger Convention. The secretary, board members and members of the Commission on Merger have spent much time attending the various Federation meetings to present the proposed set-up of the Women's Guild. The activities of the local societies and the financial income for Larger Kingdom work are steady. There are no marked increases nor decreases. A special activity on Mother's Day to introduce more family devotions resulted in the distribution of 11,000 leaflets containing devotional suggestions for children, entitled "Golden Moments for the Family."

The proceeds of the Student Aid Fund have been placed into an endowment as a memorial to the late Rev. H. L. Streich, from which scholarships will be given to boys and girls preparing themselves for full time service in the Church. The Rev. H. L. Streich was the Pioneer Executive Secretary of the Women's Union for fifteen years and our women wish to honor his memory. This ingathering will continue during the separate existence of the Women's Union, probably until 1941.

The coming year brings two emphases to the societies—Stewardship and World Missions. These will be presented through the respective departments of Stewardship and Missionary Education. Thus the program of education and service is ever being kept before the womanhood of the Church.

Elsa Reichenbach, Executive Secretary.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Woman's Missionary Society during the past year served in a double capacity, that of promoting the work of the organization itself and trying also to bring to the women of the Church in societies other than missionary, a clear and concise presentation of the purpose and policy of the Woman's Guild.

The reports at the annual Cabinet meeting in May sounded a note of optimism and showed that the interest in missionary activity among the women is advancing. In the thinking of the younger women and girls there is a marked interest in the world program of the Church.

One item of grave concern was the debt of the Board of Home Missions and plans were made to give special assistance this year toward debt reduction.

Attention was called to the Denominational Anniversary celebrations to take place in 1940. Action was taken to co-operate to the fullest extent by participating and assisting the Church in the celebration of the founding of the denomination in the United States.

The education of the women of the Church in world conditions is a major project of the organization. This is done through various channels under the direction of the Chairman of the Educational Commission, Mrs. E. W. Lentz. Personal religious living is emphasized and such helps as Daily Devotional books, Prayer thoughts, study of the Scriptures, and Prayer Calendars are prepared for the use of the women and girls.

Stewardship is promoted through a special department under Mrs. V. E. Walenta's oversight. The practice of tithing is growing, as is also the reading of special literature prepared for this department.

The Thank Offering department is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Wm. U. Treston, and in appreciation of what they have enjoyed the sum of $42,766.42 was given by our women to missionary projects through this channel last year.

A definite budget is adopted each year and is based on per capita dues; the items for support are suggested by the Secretaries of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions. For the year 1939-

1940 approximately $48,000 has been adopted and a challenge of a $50,000 Thank Offering has been made. These funds will support all types of missionary work in the home field, such as work with the Indians, in the Ozarks, at Biloxi, support of deaconesses—Hungarian and American, as well as work in Japan, China, India, Africa, Iraq and Honduras. Some special projects are also included, some denominational, others interdenominational. All types of work are included in these gifts, educational, medical and evangelistic. The total disbursements of the society from May, 1938 to May, 1939 amounted to $154,848.91.

The work of Organization and Membership is steadily carried on by the Executive Secretary, Miss Carrie M. Kerschner, who will give any desired information concerning the work of the society.
Hildegarde Alice Leich, President.

THE WOMEN'S GUILD

The idea of one woman's organization in the local Church is included in the new Constitution of the united Church which was adopted by the men of the Church.

The women of the Church are now busily trying to give this idea concrete form, make it tangible, and so at Cleveland, Ohio, November 1, 2 and 3 the organization of the Women's Guild is to be effected.

The Guild, as set up, will include all the women of the church, all women's societies in the local Church are to become a definite part of the new organization. They will give this new organization perspective and background, and a chance to live.

The success of this organization lies not alone in the hands of the women, but will need the support and enthusiasm of the pastor to help sell this idea of a one woman's society in the local Church and to be an integral part of the working forces of the denomination, as an auxiliary organization of the General Synod.

Enthusiasm is contagious, so let us stress the point that together we can accomplish our aim and become leaders in Christian Women's work.

A dignified and impressive ceremony is being arranged for the Merger of the two groups. Dr. L. W. Goebel, President of General Synod, will bring the message.

Help the women of the Church demonstrate to the Christian world that the Guild is no longer just an idea but exists analogous and symbolic of former organizations.

Mrs. Hildegarde A. Leich, Vice-chairman,
The Commission on Merger.

CHURCHMEN'S BROTHERHOOD

Since 1936 our Churchmen's Brotherhood has made noticeable gains in both the number of local chapters and individual membership.

Our work compels us to continue two offices, Philadelphia and St. Louis. Our Philadelphia Office is under the able direction of Dr. J. M. G. Darms, whose field lies east of the eastern boundary line of the State of Ohio, together with the "R" constituency within the state of Ohio. Dr. Darms also serves Hope Church in Philadelphia. Much pioneer work remains to be done in this section of our Church, but our work is going forward.

Our St. Louis Office is under the efficient direction of Rev. E. J. Westerbeck, who also serves the Church Extension Fund Board in a similar capacity. Brotherhood work is nothing new to him, only his official connection, and he has taken hold of his duties in a very remarkable fashion. Our men have learned to love him, and are eager to follow his leadership.

We are indeed fortunate to have two Executive Secretaries, such as Darms and Westerbeck, and we thank God for them.

We are striving constantly to bring the men of our Church into a greater activity in service of the Church through our several Departments of Work, which are: 1. Devotional Life: Rev. E. A. Piepenbrok, Indianapolis, Ind., chairman; 2. Christian Stewardship: Rev. R. W. Blemker, Canton, O., chairman; 3. Missionary Education: Rev. C. F. Freeman, Doylestown, Pa., chairman; 4. Christian Social Action: Mr. H. H. Webbink, Independence, Mo.; 5. Denominational Loyalty: Judge D. J. Snyder, Greensburg, Pa.

Through the efforts of these good brothers, we constantly strive to carry their important work down through our Federations into our local chapters. Men will only interest themselves in such matters with which they have been fully informed.

OUR NATIONAL PROJECT

Our Board of Directors, in annual meeting in St. Louis in February, 1939, decided to establish a "National Project," something really worth while and universally challenging to Christian men throughout our entire Church. We sincerely invite all suggestions as to what might really become such an enterprise for the Churchmen's Brotherhood, bearing in mind that such an objective must be of national, or church-wide importance, and one that will appeal to our men everywhere. We hope to present one or more definite objectives to the next National Convention for their consideration and final action.

OUR 1940 CONVENTION

In August, 1940, we shall, God willing, hold our Second National Convention in Chicago, Illinois. A great program is already being prepared and arrangements are well under way. Our Chicago brethren and their pastors are working hard. We should make this convention the greatest gathering of Christian men ever held in this country. Speakers of national prominence will address this convention and it should spur us on in our endeavors to the end that the man-power of our Church may free themselves from that lethargy that has retarded the work of our entire Church.

OUR FLASHADS

For the first time in our history, we have made it possible for our men to "show their colors" by placing a Flashad on their automobile license plate. This Flashad shows clearly, by day or night, our official emblem in colors and the name of our organization. More than 1,000 of these ads have already been placed and no doubt many more will soon be in use. Every automobile owner in the Churchmen's Brotherhood should display one of these Flashads. They can be obtained for 25 cents, postpaid, from either of our offices.

RADIO BROADCAST

On September 3rd, 1939, the first Brotherhood Broadcast service was held in the studio of Station KMOX. This courtesy was extended to us through the efforts of the St. Louis Brotherhood Federation and KMOX. We are hoping soon to obtain a half hour monthly over the national network of the Columbia Broadcasting Systems, "Church of the Air." What a splendid medium of bringing our message of the Christ to our nation's radio listeners.

Our Brotherhood faces the future, dark as it is, in complete confidence and in reliance upon Him who is the head of our Church, even Christ himself, and with Him as our pilot, we cannot fail.

The men of our great Church have a task to perform, our Brotherhood must make clear to them this task, and when they do finally fully realize their responsibilities we will see a Christ-directed reawakening and our Church will then, and then only, become the power for good that it should be.

To this end we plead with our good pastors everywhere to let us help them to rally their men to the tasks of their Church. Let us work together, not for self, but Him who came into this sinful world to redeem mankind.

"Jesus, I live to Thee,
The Loveliest and Best;
My Life in Thee,
Thy Life in me;
In Thy blest love I rest."

Respectfully submitted,
Walter H. Witthaus,
National President

FOR THE HEART AND THE HOME

You Must Build Higher

"The fault is with the chimney," said the expert who had come to see what was wrong with the kitchen range.

"A stove," he continued, "has, of course, no draught in itself; it is only its connection with the flue that makes the fire burn and the smoke ascend, and the higher the chimney the stronger the draught. At shops and foundries, where fierce fires are needed, the chimneys are run to great heights. Your stove clogs, chokes and smokes because your chimney is too low. You must build higher."

His words remind us of other fires that burn low and choke too easily; of love and aspiration so often clogged by life's daily worry and fret; of faith that only smoulders instead of flaming bright and bearing away the petty troubles and worries which seek to smother it; of hearts and lives that grow cold and dull because their upreach is not high enough.

The upward drawing is not high enough to give vigor to the flame and, to whirl away the refuse.

The Truth

Sighing inwardly—his study window gave him forewarning of callers—the minister went down to meet Mrs. James Potter. It seemed to him that he was always going down to meet some Mrs. James Potter. Once he had preached a sermon about her. Of course it did not reach her. It did not even relieve his own mind as he had thought it would, because little Jessie Connor had come to him the next morning troubled for fear she had hurt others—Jessie Connor, of all people. Then the minister gave up preaching at other people and preached only at himself.

Mrs. Potter was sitting by the door, stern and inflexible, her unhappy face full of hard lines. She had, of course, been hurt by something somebody had said about her. She gave the story in detail—the minister could have given it to her exactly as accurately. It was all so clear,—the faithfulness to her poor, narrow creed, the biting tongue, the unlovely life,—all so clear to everybody, except Mrs. James Potter.

"I told her the whole truth," she finished her story. "I can't help it if she didn't like it. Somebody ought to tell her the truth, so I did. And this is the thanks I get. Sometimes I wonder what is the use of doing your duty anyhow, when those who do it are hated, and those who trim and flatter get all the pleasant things in life."

"You told her the whole truth," the minister repeated slowly. "That was a wonderful achievement, Mrs. Potter. You are to be congratulated—if you really did it."

Mrs. Potter stared at him in bewilderment.

"You see," the minister explained, "the truth is so large. The 'whole truth'—who but God knows that? The biggest of us can grasp but fragments of it. Suppose you tell me exactly what you said about Millie."

"I said," Mrs. Potter's tone was slightly defiant, "that Millie was growing wild, and everybody was talking about her, and if her mother didn't watch her closely, it would be too late."

"Was that all?"

"That was all."

"And you call that the 'whole truth'?"

Again Mrs. Potter stared, now resentfully.

"You said nothing about Millie's being a pretty, affectionate child, nothing about her clever fingers, her intelligence, nor her kindheartedness, nor her unselfishness?"

"What had that to do with it?" she asked, half scornfully.

"Everything, if you were telling the 'whole truth.' You see, you were not telling the whole truth at all. To take a bit of the shadow side and offer it as a perfect picture was no more the whole truth than if I should describe her by saying she had a knack at trimming hats. Now Mrs. Potter, I am going to ask you to think this matter over. Hereafter, when you tell any one the truth I want you to stop and think how much—and which side—of the truth you are really telling; then, whenever you tell anything about the shadow side, stop and tell something of the bright side to balance it. If you will follow this prescription carefully, you will find that you and other people will understand each other as you never have before in your lives. Remember that unless you do this you are not honest. Try it for a month."

A Costly Affair

BY ELIZABETH ALLEN

The new mistress of the brand-new house on Park Avenue was tripping down the softly carpeted Queen Anne stairway, to her first breakfast in her new home. She had hurried down before her husband to see that everything was in order; opening the door of the breakfast room first; giving a loving, dainty touch to its shining array of bridal silver, and then hastening on to the library.

This was the cosiest room of all. True, there wasn't much "library" about it yet, for all of Mr. Winston's books, and all of hers, could not be made to fill many shelves. But there was her pretty, tall escritoire, and Mr. Winston's writing table, and the amusingly new dictionary on its jaunty stand, and—O, there was library enough, and it was a dear pretty room, with a friendly little coal fire glowing out a warm welcome at her.

The bride looked smilingly content, and yet a trifle anxious, too; else why that pucker between the pretty brows? And what was she looking for? Ah, here it is, a little bell, with an image of some queer old heathen idol for a handle. She opens the door, and tinkles the bell sharply in the hall, while her color comes and goes. Almost immediately her domestic appears, having clapped a clean white apron on top of a checked gingham one of less immaculate character.

"Sit down, Martha," says the lady nervously. "Frank—I mean Mr. Winston, will be down directly, and we will have prayers."

But Martha was nervous too; she took her seat on the edge of a chair that was never meant, I think, to be sat on, and edged this chair so close to the wall as to endanger seriously the stamped leather paper. Then she pulled one finger after another until she had cracked all her joints. Still Mr. Winston did not appear.

"I'll just tell you the truth, Mis' Winston," she burst out at last: "I don't like this thing of comin' to prayers. I'm a first class cook, an' I know I can give satisfaction in my meats and fancy breads, an' I haven't been brought up religious, an' I don't take to it. Why, I ain't seen the inside of a church these five year', and as for prayers, none of my families ever asked it of me before."

"But would you have us take God's good gifts like dumb brutes, Martha," said the new house-mistress, her voice trembling with the effort it cost her, "and give Him no thanks?"

"O I ain't raisin' no objection to prayers," answered the cook, with the free and easy tone of an American-born servant; "fact is, I wouldn't think as much of you if you didn't have 'em; quality folks mostly does; but I feel like a fish out o' water, when I ain't in my own kitchen."

"Very well," said the new mistress, a little hurriedly, for she heard Frank shut the chamber door upstairs, "I only ask you to try it for a week; after that you may do as you choose."

"Good morning, Martha," said the gentleman gaily, as he came in. "Well, Mrs. Winston, is my congregation ready?"

His tone was rather light, perhaps; but the new duty embarrassed him, and he took this altogether masculine way of hiding his embarrassment. When Letty had first proposed setting up a family altar, Mr. Winston had demurred, laughed at her a little, asked why their individual prayers wouldn't do, called her a superstitious child, but finally yielded to her entreaty that their new home might be placed under the shadow of the sweet sanctities belonging to both old homes.

And having yielded the point, he made up his mind to be gracious about it, and do the thing in the best possible style. That was part of his nature. Frank Winston never made any one uncomfortable, though he was a careless fellow on the whole. Martha, for her part, was much impressed with the rich, sonorous voice, as he read with faultless elocution the story of the child Jesus, and still more so by the fervent and far-reaching petitions. That both tone and words were conventional habits of mind and speech, inherited, or acquired by unconscious imitation, she could not possibly know. But there was never a word more about her staying away from morning prayers; she allowed no domestic exigency to keep her away, and her keen though undeveloped intelligence was aroused to a lively interest in the reading and the prayers, which was to prove a surprise to both master and mistress.

One of the newnesses enjoyed by the young wife was the shining condition of the kitchen. Coming from the South, where the Negro cooks held absolute sway in their domains, and where the old pots and pans had done service for a lifetime, Mrs. Winston had not imagined that a kitchen could be such a thing of beauty. She was always making the excuse of "trying a new recipe," to spend a morning hour with Martha. And Martha, being essentially sociable, was pleased also.

"Who is sick, Mis' Winston?" she inquired on one of these occasions when the mistress and maid were sitting together, their knees under the white oil-cloth covered table.

"Sick? I don't know, I'm sure; why do you think anybody is sick, Martha?"

"Didn't Mr. Winston pray for him this morning?" asked the domestic in reproachful surprise. "I thought he seemed mighty sort of anxious about the Lord raisin' him up off his sick bed."

"Yes, yes," agreed the mistress hastily; "so he did." But she had a secret shamefaced consciousness that Frank hadn't meant anything in particular by that well rounded sentence about the "sick and afflicted."

"I wish you'd ask Mr. Frank who it is, Mis' Winston," was Martha's next startling request; "'cause this is my afternoon out, and I thought I might take him a glass of that calf's-foot jelly. It's more'n you all is goin' to eat afore you're tired of it, and that prayer has been runnin' in my head all day; seems as if I wanted to do something for the poor fellow myself."

Mrs. Winston told her husband when he came to lunch, and they joked over it a little, but with some constraint.

"Your maid takes morning prayers with uncomfortable literalness," said the young man; "perhaps it would be better if we did the same."

"Oh, by the way, there is a sick man in our congregation; I stepped into Mr. Stuart's office to engage half the window, you know, and I had to wait a few minutes while he and a brother deacon consulted about giving help from the church fund to a carpenter, a man named Brooks, who broke his leg yesterday."

"O well, that will satisfy Martha," said Mrs. Winston eagerly; "I hated her to think—to know, that is—"

"Yes, it would be a pity for her to know how little we think or feel what we say at prayers," agreed her husband honestly.

So Brooks, the carpenter, stopped the gap very well. Martha told him that he was prayed for at her house, and told Mrs. Winston that she had told him, and this time they joked still more faintly about it, and the gentleman said they had Brooks' faith on their consciences now; Brooks wouldn't believe in their prayers unless they followed them up by more tangible help.

Of course, the help followed, and their connection with the Brookses established a sort of domestic mission between the new house on Park Avenue and the rickety tenement on Tanner Street. And now Mr. Winston began to have a livelier consciousness of what he did mean when he came with his petitions to the Almighty.

But careful as he set himself to be, Martha's next bomb exploded in the very heart of his affairs. The new home on Park Avenue was getting ready for what its master called a "blow-out," which sadly slang phrase seemed to mean a large entertainment—large, to judge by the time mistress and maid spent stoning raisins and cutting up citron for fruit cake. Martha entered heartily into the festive spirit of the occasion and as she attacked the last green sugary lobe, she made the request that the blinds in the back should be left up "just a teeny mite," enough for her to see the assembled company.

"Of course you shall see the people," agreed her mistress gleefully, "if I have to walk them all around by the back window myself."

"I especially want to see Mr. Frank's brother and his wife," confessed Martha. "Susan Parks has been 'lowing to me that they beat my folks for looks, and I've been 'lowing they don't. So now's my chance to get even with Susan."

But what was this? Mrs. Winston's face flushed an angry color, her eyes looked forbidding, and the pleasant smile vanished from her lips as if a whirlwind had caught it.

"Mr. Winston's brother will not be here, Martha," she said stiffly, "nor his wife; they have both behaved very badly to us, and we never expect to invite them to the house."

Martha dropped the citron and the knife, and her hands and her under-jaw; it looked for a minute as if she meant to drop her mistress's acquaintance, from the stillness of surprise that came over her. Then she shut her eyes, and repeated, in clear imitation of Mr. Winston's resonant tone, "Forgive us our offenses this day, O Lord, even as we, following Thy command and following Thy blessed example, do this day strive to forgive all who have offended or injured us."

Martha opened her eyes when she had finished her quotation and fell upon her citron vengefully. But she opened her lips no more that day except in answer to a question. And when the little silver bell rang for prayers the next morning, no Martha appeared. Mr. Winston waited a few minutes, and looked inquiringly at his wife.

"We will have prayers without Martha this morning," she said hesitatingly; I'll see about it another time."

"Is it one of her practical jokes on us?" asked the gentleman.

But when inquiry was made the domestic declined to come to prayers any more, and declined to give her reason. Then Mrs. Winston confessed with considerable trepidation what had passed between them. What if Frank should fly in a rage and order Martha off the spot! Just before the party, too! Mr. Winston looked red enough in the face, when he heard the quotation from himself, to have done even so desperate a thing as that; but he tried to meet the situation in his old light way.

"See here, Letty," he said, "we've either got to get rid of this woman, or—or," his voice suddenly lost its banter, and he spoke with great feeling, "or we've got to set about living nearer to our prayers!"

It was the evening of the entertainment at the new house on Park Avenue. Mrs. Winston came shimmering into the kitchen, with her pretty white gown and slippers on; why not? There wasn't a cleaner floor in her house. "Martha," she said shamefacedly, "I have left the blinds up in the back parlor, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Winston have promised to come early, so don't miss seeing them."

"Lord bless you, honey!" said the cook, her grumness disappearing like snow in April. The hired waiters from "Bonsacks" stood around in their high-and-mightiness and wondered what it all meant; but Martha knew, and the guardian angels of the new home, who had come unbidden to the feast—though they had not heard the story then—knew how sweet and pleasant it was for brethren to dwell together in unity.

The family were a little late in coming down to prayers the next morning after the "blow-out," and when the husband and wife opened the library door, there sat Martha, waiting for them against the wall, in white apron, and radiant smile, and something like tears in her old eyes.

Sometime

BY MRS. MAY RILEY SMITH

Sometime, when all life's lessons have been learned,

And sun and stars for evermore have set,
The things which our weak judgment here had spurned,

The things o'er which we grieve with lashes wet,
Will flash us out of life's dark night,

As stars shine most in deeper tints of blue;
And we shall see how all God's plans were right,
And how what seemed reproof was love most true.

And we shall see how, while we frown and sigh,
God's plans go on as best for you and me;
How, when we called, He heeded not our cry,
Because His wisdom to the end could see.
And e'en as prudent parents disallow
Too much of sweet to craving babyhood,
So God, perhaps, is keeping from us now
Life's sweetest things, because it seemeth good.

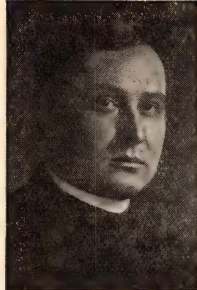

And if, sometimes, commingled with life's wine,
We find the wormwood, and rebel and shrink,
Be sure a wiser hand than yours or mine
Pours out this potion for our lips to drink;
And if some one we love is lying low,
Where human kisses cannot reach the face,
O do not blame the loving Father so,
But wear your sorrow with obedient grace.

And you will shortly know that lengthened breath
Is not the sweetest gift God gives His friends;
And that sometimes the sable pall of death
Conceals the fairest boon His love can send.
If we could push ajar the gates of life,
And stand within and all God's working see,
We could interpret all this doubt and strife,
And for each mystery could find a key.

But not today. Then be content, poor heart!
God's plans, like lilies pure and white, unfold;
We must not tear the close-shut leaves apart;
Time will reveal the calyxes of gold.
And if, through patient toil, we reach the land
Where tired feet, with sandals loosed, may rest,
When we shall clearly know and understand,
I think that we shall say: "God knew the best."

MINISTERS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH WHO HAVE BEEN CALLED TO THEIR REWARD

APPENZELLER, REV. EDGAR R., born in Philadelphia, Pa., where he also passed away on Easter morning, 1939. Educated in the Philadelphia schools, Ursinus College, and the Theological Seminary, from which he graduated in 1903. After serving as assistant pastor of Fourth Church, Dayton, he came to Chambersburg, Pa., and in 1910 to First Church in Philadelphia, where ill health caused him to retire in 1917. He was employed in the U. S. Department of Internal Revenue, Philadelphia, until 1936, when sickness compelled him to abandon that work also. In Dayton he was married to Miss Catharine Rice of that city, who died in 1926. Honored by the endowment in Central Theological Seminary, Dayton, of the Augustus L. Kaub Chair of Reformed Church History, Liturgics, Sociology and Missions, to which he was the first appointee, he modestly declined to accept. He is survived by his two daughters, two sisters and two brothers. Funeral services at Dayton April 11, and interment at the side of his wife. Messenger 5-25-39.

REFLECTIONS

Think of the man behind you. Your open car-window may give you pleasure, but it may give the other man pneumonia. There is always some one else to be considered. His right limits yours. Disregard of the other's right is just human nature; consideration of another's welfare, however, is divine grace.

What we call civilization is nothing more or less than the adjustment of one's natural, personal rights to another's equal and conflicting rights. To insist on one's own rights at the expense of another's welfare is at bottom savagery pure and simple.

The Christian must be able to go beyond civilization. Where Law, among civilized peoples, compels a formal adjustment of rights love voluntarily seeks the other man's welfare at the cost of its own desire.

Christian love is much more than mere kindness and good will. When Jesus commands us to love our neighbors as ourselves He asks us first of all to examine our love of self honestly and intelligently. To love one's self in the spirit of Jesus Christ means self-discipline rather than self-indulgence. To love one's neighbor as one's self involves self-denying service of our neighbor. And a neighbor, according to the parable of the Good Samaritan, is any one who may be in need, regardless of race, creed or nationality. The Kingdom of God can come only as the spirit of Christian love is established and comes to prevail among people who call themselves Christians.

What Is Faith?

When a miner looks at the rope that is to lower him into the deep mine, he may coolly say, "I have faith in that rope as well made and strong." But when he lays hold of it, and swings down by it into the tremendous chasm, then he is believing on the rope. Then he is trusting himself to the rope. It is not a mere opinion—it is an act. The miner lets go of everything else, and bears his whole weight on those well braided strands of hemp. Now that is faith. T. L. Cuyler.

Three Birds with Three Notes

I spent a week in the very heart of the woods; and there morning, noon and evening I was regaled with the rarest, choicest, most pleasing music. And all the music was made by three birds—a quail, a cooing dove, and a wood robin. They sang neither in unison nor in concert. Each had a range of only three notes. But ah, the melody! Melody seemed to melt in the air. Perfect stillness and restfulness! Then the call of a happy heart breaking through a willing throat.

As I listened daily three impressions came to me. First: God's gifts are beyond compare. No conceivable gift or equipment in size of body, or brilliance of plumage, or strength of wing, could have equalled in value the three happy notes each used by the gift of God. Then, of course, I must meditate upon the use of that talent with which the good God had endowed them. No repining, complaining, envying here; but each bird sang his notes, made his music, gave the world his melody.

And I grew gravely grateful as I thought of how small an equipment or investment is needed to make a happy world. Three small birds, with three small notes, and a will to sing. But I spent a week with them in paradise. J. C. Massee.

A successful Chautauqua lecturer, who is also a lawyer, was presented to his audience as follows:

"I am very glad to introduce to you, ladies and gentlemen, Mr. B., who will give his lecture 'The Trial of Jesus from a Lawyer's Standpoint.' I can imagine only one lecture which might prove more interesting to this audience than the one announced. That would be 'The Trial of a Lawyer from Jesus' Standpoint.'"

JUST FOR FUN

Mr. Sidener had made his first speech. He waited for his wife's verdict but she was strangely silent. He had expected her to say: "Oh, it was simply great, Eddie!" But they were half-way home, and she had said nothing.

"Well," he began awkwardly, "what did you think of my speech?"

"What you said was alright," she answered with guarded enthusiasm. "But it seemed to me you didn't make the most of your opportunities."

"Opportunities?" he repeated; "what do you mean, Effie?"

"Why," she replied, "you had ever so many chances to sit down before you did."

Old man (browsing in a bookstore)—"Last Days of Pompeii"—what did he die of?"

Bookseller—"Oh, I dunno—some sort of eruption."

He was a very bright youngster, and during a pause in his performances, specially requested by

Auntie, he suddenly pointed a chubby finger at the door and said: "My rug!"

Auntie at once caught the spirit of the thing and cried emphatically: "No, my rug!"

"My dress," said the little nephew, pointing to Auntie's gown.

"No, my dress," replied Auntie, delighted to have an opportunity to show how cute he was.

Then the little boy sidled over to the caller and, pointing to him, cried: "My man!"

Sudden silence on the part of Auntie.

There was a young man from the city,
Who saw what he thought was a kitty;
He gave it a pat—

But soon after that
He buried his clothes—what a pity!

Father: "Why is it that you are always at the bottom of the class?"

Son: "It doesn't make any difference, Daddy; they teach the same things at both ends."

HOW FORLORN CHILDHOOD IS BLESSED HERE

Our German Protestant Orphans' Home cares for children who, because of the loss of one or both parents, have been deprived of the opportunities of home.

A substantial building adequately furnished, plenteous and wholesome food, ample clothing, full medical service, the best educational facilities and wise and affectionate Christian training insure our girls' and boys' safety and happiness in their physical, mental, moral and spiritual development. Thus we lead them day by day into growth for the finest type of citizenship—able and eager to give to society and gain from it all that is best for successful living. Every phase of our service to youth is planned to afford all that the most careful Christian family life in the home can provide.

Freely offered charity represents 90 per cent of our monetary maintenance. We therefore earnestly and trustfully ask for your gifts now, and for bequests in your will. The more than eighty years' service we have rendered to more than 5,000 distressed children merits your richest generosity, and because such care requires large expenditures and never for a single day must fail, we are needy. Help us save these unfortunates of God's children!

All freight and express should be addressed: German Protestant Orphans' Home, c/o Anchor Cold Storage, 528 North Second Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

The German Protestant Home for Orphans and Old People West Grand Boulevard Detroit, Michigan

Our orphans' and old people's home is situated in one of the most beautiful sections of Detroit. We cordially welcome Evangelical people who may come to Detroit to visit our institution. A Grand River car to West Grand Boulevard will bring them right to the home.

The home is under control of the Michigan and Ohio Districts of our Evangelical Synod and is dependent upon friends within our Church for its support.

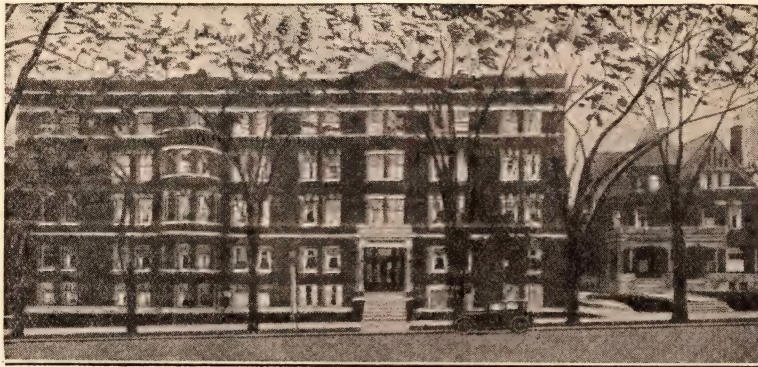

Our Home is able to accommodate 125 children and 50 old people. To meet our daily requirements is quite a problem at this time of social misery as the conduct of our institution is dependent more than ever before upon the generosity of our friends in the Synod.

We cordially solicit your interest and express our gratitude to the many friends who have heretofore supported us.

Requests must be made in favor of "German Protestant Home for Orphans and Old People, c/o Mr. Chas. Reibling, Treasurer, 1433 Bagley St., Detroit, Mich." Other contributions will be gratefully received by the superintendent, Rev. F. Lueckhoff, 1852 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Phone: Tyler 5-8800.

HOMEWOOD

"Old Folks' Home of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, Incorporated"

1805 VIRGINIA AVENUE

was made possible through the generosity of the late Mr. George C. Pearson, of Smithsburg, Md., who left the residue of his estate to establish such a Home. The Home was incorporated September 22, 1930, and is supported chiefly from the Pearson Estate.

Homewood cares for seventeen guests, but many needy are on our waiting list. Our old people have supported our church in their younger years, now let us support them in their latter years. Our present need is equipment for present building,—and a new building—cost about $50,000. Splendid opportunity for a memorial.

Bethany Orphans' Home

Womelsdorf, Pa.

REV. H. E. GEBHARD,
Superintendent

Bethany Orphans' Home is the largest Orphans' Home of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and serves the area comprised in the former Eastern Synod. At present there are 253 guests—133 boys and 120 girls.

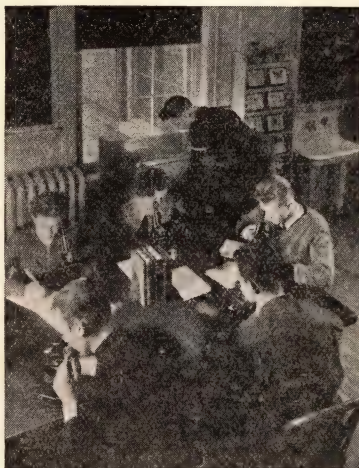

Outstanding factors making Bethany an ideal "Home" are the splendid educational opportunities afforded the children, and the beautiful environment of the Home, located at the foot of the South Mountain on a 240-acre tract. Seventeen major buildings constitute the equipment which includes Administration Building, cottages, infirmary, school, church, and barns. The present imperative needs of the Home are an adequate modern school-building, an additional dormitory, and a swimming pool.

Careful diet, supervised play, careful oversight and attention contribute to the splendid health of our children. During the past nine years thirty children have been graduated from high school. During the past year sixteen children have been following courses in schools of higher education.

An illustrated brochure, portraying the history of the Home in word and picture, has been published and will be mailed on receipt of 25c.

Applications for admission are made through the consistory or council of the Churches who support our Home. The Home is dependent on voluntary contributions and legacies for its support. All contributions should be sent direct to the Home.

PHOEBE HOME

Allentown, Pennsylvania

(Eastern Synod's Old Folks' Home)

Rev. F. H. Moyer, D.D., Superintendent

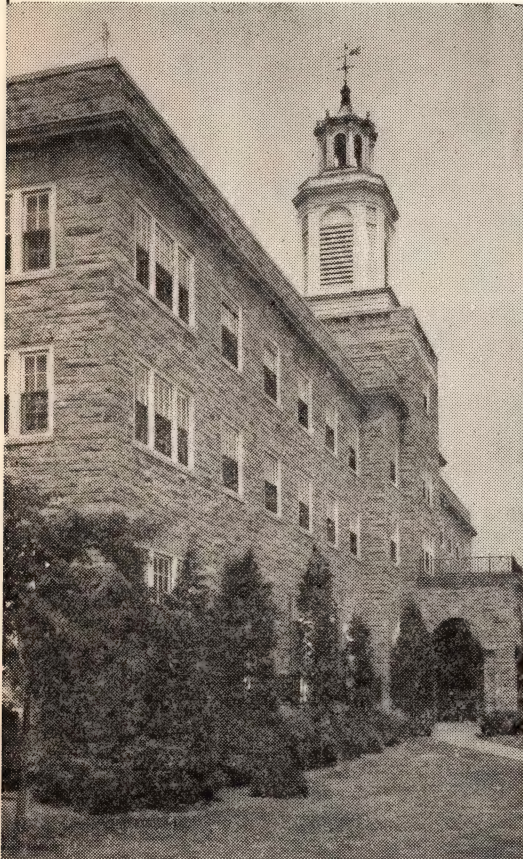

Single men and women and married couples constitute the guests of the Home. The number of invalids being received is constantly increasing.

Supported by voluntary contributions from the churches throughout the Eastern Synod.

More income is needed for the support of the family.

Legacies received have been used to build up an endowment still much too small.

When our earthly life ends and we no longer need material possessions, it seems right to leave them to those who are feeble and dependent.
